Use the below template to create product backlog and sprint schedule

Sprint	Functional Requirement (Epic)	User Story Number	User Story / Task	Story Points	Priority	Team Members
Sprint-1	Preparing and exploring the Dataset	USN-1	The user will explore data in the dataset. Using the details, user will create new feature from it	1	High	5
Sprint-2	Visualize the Dataset	USN-2	Users will create various charts for various categories.	2	High	5
Sprint-3	Analyze the data	USN-3	Using the charts, users will get insight from it by comparing the charts.	3	Low	5
Sprint-4	Dashboard	USN-4	Interactive and creative dashboard will be created from analyzed data.	3	Medium	5

Project Tracker, Velocity & Burndown Chart: (4 Marks)

Velocity:

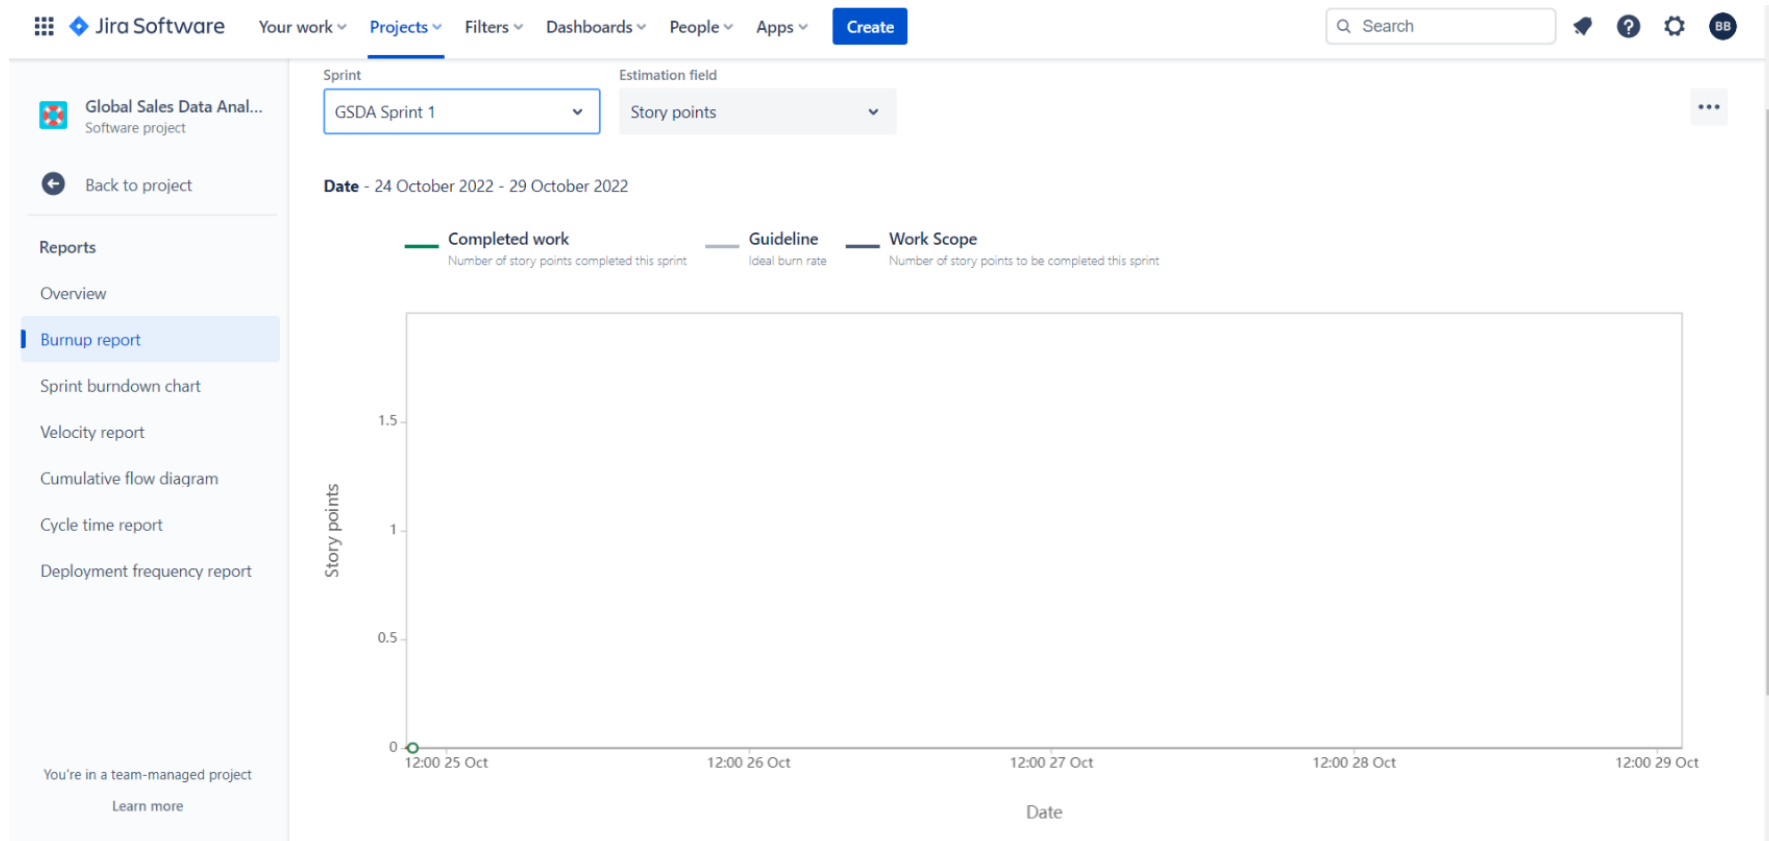

Imagine we have a 10-day sprint duration, and the velocity of the team is 20 (points per sprint). Let's calculate the team's average velocity (AV) per iteration unit (story points per day)

$$AV = \frac{\text{sprint duration}}{\text{velocity}} = \frac{20}{10} = 2$$

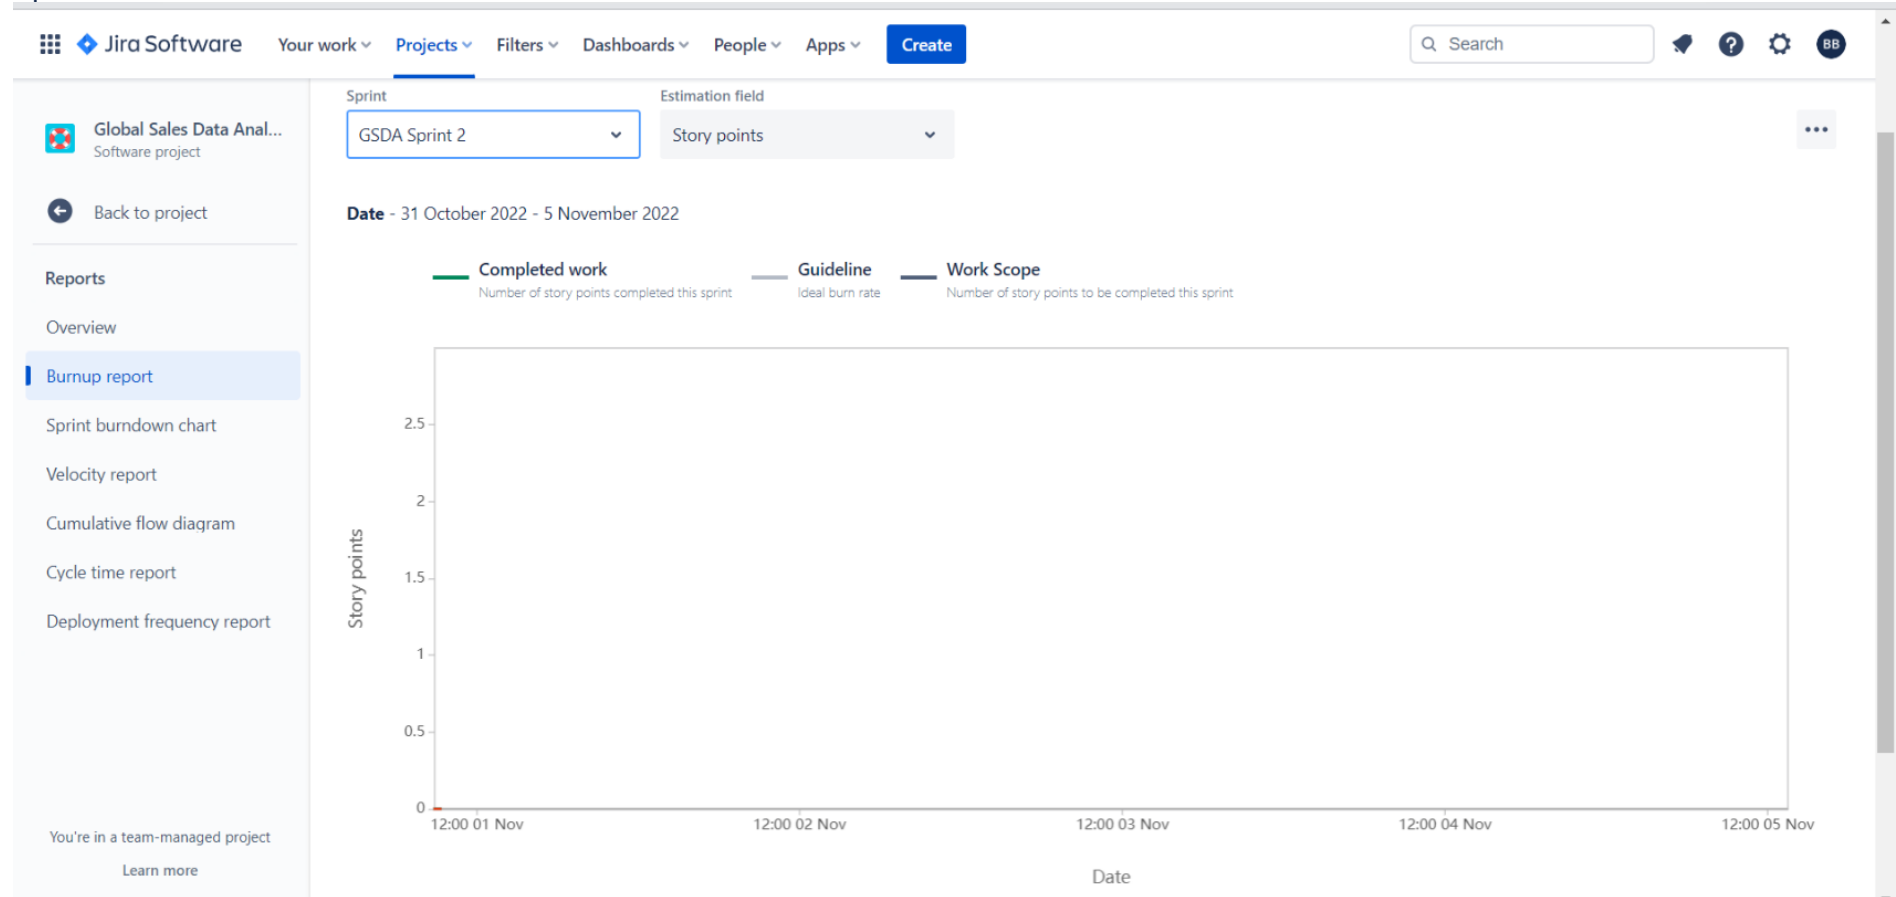

Burndown Chart:

A burn down chart is a graphical representation of work left to do versus time. It is often used in agile software development methodologies such as Scrum. However, burn down charts can be applied to any project containing measurable progress over time.
